Friday 5th October saw CDO, Sara Hurley present the inaugural NASDAL (The Association of Specialist Dental Accountants and Lawyers) Dental Check by One Practice of the Year Award in the Innovation Theatre at BDIA Showcase.

The award has been created by NASDAL to recognise the efforts that many practices up and down the country are putting into the British Society of Paediatric Dentistry (BSPD) Dental Check by One scheme. (The aim of the campaign is to increase the number of children who access dental care aged 0-2 years.)

The winners of the NASDAL Dental Check by One Practice of the Year 2018 Award and the £1000 prize are The Maltings Dental Practice, Grantham, Lincolnshire.

Nick Ledingham, Chairman of NASDAL, commented, "NASDAL has always been keen to recognise business excellence in dentistry but in addition, this new award has illustrated that doing the right thing makes good business sense too. Congratulations to The Maltings Dental Practice who were worthy winners."

Louise Butler, Practice Manager at The Maltings Dental Practice said, "We are delighted to win this award – the whole team work so hard and to receive this kind of recognition will really spur the team on to further efforts."

Claire Stevens, President of BSPD, added, "I am delighted that Jason Wong and his team at the Maltings Dental Surgery are the winners of the NASDAL DCby1 Practice of the Year award. Their commitment to the campaign has been outstanding and this award is well deserved.
